

Portuguese municipal charters in the Middle Ages: An historical and linguistic approach in the digital era

Filipa Roldão – University of Lisbon

Joana Serafim – University of Zurich / University of Lisbon

Presentation and objectives

Ongoing research project on the most ancient medieval municipal charters granted by the Portuguese kings until 1279.

Methodology

Multidisciplinary approach: History, Linguistics and Digital Humanities

Innovation on the software of automatic transcription and collation of documents for Latin and Portuguese languages

Outputs

Electronic critical edition

Digital glossary of the Latin and Portuguese lexicon

